

Case Report Evaluation

CASE REPORT TITLE:
NAME OF RESIDENT:
DATE:
SUBMISSION (select one):	Companion Animal Equine Large Animal

Introduction: literature review (only pertinent references included), purpose of the case report stated explicit		/10
Clinical Report: complete nutritional assessment, including complete diet history and physical exam findings (including current and ideal body weight, body and muscle condition scores)		/10
Clinical Report: caloric and relevant nutrient evaluations and recommendations included and accurate		/10
Clinical Report: diagnostics, dietary & medical treatment, and outcome clearly stated and logical		/10
Clinical Report: problem list and differential diagnoses, key nutritional factors		/10
Discussion: cohesive, ties together components of case, displays critical thinking skills regarding problem as presented including limitations of the case report, and plan to address		/10
Conclusion: cohesive, displays understanding of case and outcome, and, if applicable, displays clarity in the bigger picture and future direction for approach to similar cases (including proposed treatment plan, future diagnostics, and follow-up)		/10
Graphics: tables and graphs clear and understandable, well-labelled, images high quality, all graphics possess purpose in assisting the reader in understanding the case report		/10
Novelty or complexity of the case and clinical relevance		/10
General: grammar and writing style (clear, organized), references and citations are complete and correct		/10
TOTAL		/100

Comments:

Signed		Date
Name (PRINT)

ATTENTION REVIEWER:
 When complete, please email this form to the Chair of the Credentials Committee (Dr. Verbrugge; averbrug@uoguelph.ca) by May 1st 2016